

Creating a Winner's Image

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Science and psychology have isolated the one prime cause of the results you get in your life: the hidden image you hold of yourself. This hidden image controls what you believe is possible for you to earn, to achieve and to deserve. When you reach or exceed the level of performance or income that your self-image is set at, it will find ways to shut you down, turn you off and sabotage all your efforts to do better. This course can efficiently help you to better and improve this performance level.
